

Enterprise Child Care

Understanding Child Care Supply and Demand in the Community: A Workbook

ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION:

The purpose of this workbook and disk is to help community-based organizations understand the child care needs of parents and children, and the child care resources of a specific community—in other words, to measure the demand for and supply of child care.

ABOUT ENTERPRISE CHILD CARE:

Launched in 1982, the Enterprise Foundation is dedicated to rebuilding neighborhoods. We work with partners to provide low-income people with affordable housing, safer streets and access to jobs and child care.

This book is part of the Enterprise Child Care Library, a reference collection for nonprofit organizations dedicated to increasing the supply and improving the quality and affordability of child care in low-income neighborhoods. One of the many resources available through Enterprise Child Care, it offers simple, easy-to-read assistance to help your organization succeed.

ORDER FORM

Understanding Child Care Supply and Demand in the Community: A Workbook

(The Building Child Care Collaborative is currently offering this workbook for no charge other than the shipping and handling cost of $3.00)

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Fax: _____

Email: _____

Number of Copies: _____

Subtotal $ 0

Sales Tax (CA only
8.25%) $ 0

Shipping/handling $ 3

TOTAL $ 3

Check enclosed

Make check payable to NEDLC Publications

Return this form with check for $3.00 shipping and handling. Please submit orders to:

The National Economic Development and Law Center
Attn: Building Child Care
2201 Broadway Suite 815, Oakland, CA 94612-3024

Phone: (510) 251-2600, Fax (510) 251-0600